

In memory of Margaret Gorton a well-respected member of ICUsteps Tees

ICUsteps Tees Review of the Year 2019

It's been another successful year for ICUsteps Tees

Fundraisers interesting talks birthday celebrations and cream teas

Edward the elephant and Miranda the panda played their part

Along with a fabulous tombola getting 2019 off to a flying start

Participating in research improving ICU experiences nutrition and hydration

Welcoming back our founders to revisit their vocation

Supporting each other friends old and new
Meeting with members from our regional ICUsteps groups too

Our summer trip to Harlow Carr simply stunning
Release of The Fight for Survival Volume 4 the poetry volumes keep running

Celebrating Christmas with a festive feast companionship and smiles

We'll move into 2020 in ICUsteps Tees style

Wishing all our members a Peaceful Christmas and a Happy New Year
