Join the Clinical Ethics Advisory Group

Applications Now Open

Help shape ethical clinical practice across University Hospitals Tees.

The Clinical Ethics Advisory Group (CEAG) supports clinicians and teams by providing thoughtful, multidisciplinary discussion of the ethical issues that arise in patient care.

Caring Better Together+

We are now recruiting new members - and we welcome applications from:

- Clinical Staff - Doctors, nurses, AHPs, midwives, clinical governance professionals
- Non-Clinical Staff - Colleagues with an interest in ethics, patient experience, safeguarding, pastoral or legal perspectives
- Lay Members - Individuals from the community who can bring independent insight

Why Join CEAG?

- Contribute to meaningful conversations about real clinical dilemmas
- Help develop ethical guidance and awareness across UHT
- Build skills in reflection, decision-making and ethical reasoning
- Be part of a supportive, multidisciplinary group
- Meetings held 6 times per year

What We're Looking For

- Enthusiasm for clinical ethics
- Reflective thinking and constructive communication
- Relevant experience or perspective (professional or lay)
- Willingness to engage in training and group discussions
- No specialist ethics qualifications required.

How to apply

Please submit a completed CEAG expression of interest form. Applications should be emailed to: Jackie.white@nhs.net
Closing date: 24 April 2026

Find out more

Members of the CEAG are happy to discuss the group informally. Contact any CEAG member for an informal conversation.
